- 2. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(a), the Indictment contained a forfeiture allegation providing that upon Little's conviction, certain properties enumerated therein, or equivalent substitute assets, would be subject to forfeiture to the United States. As specified therein, such assets include, but are not limited to the following:

Following the jury's verdict, the Court found by a preponderance of t he evidence that the Go vernment established that the Hi-Point, model JHP, .45 caliber pistol and 12 rounds of .45 caliber ammunition were involved in or used in the commission of the offense.
- 4. Based upon Little's conviction, the court has determined that the property described above is subject to forfeiture, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 924(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c).
- 5. The court has determined that the government has establis hed the requisite nexus between the said property subject to forfeiture and the offense for which Little has been convicted; therefore, the United States is entitled to a preliminary order of forfeiture, subject to the provisions of 21 U.S.C. § 853 governing third party rights.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED,

1. The following property is hereby forfeited to the United States of America, along with all right, title, and interest of the Defendant, Kory Alexander Little, in and to such property:

Serial Number: X4136220 Asset ID: 14-ATF-024065

12 Rounds of .45 caliber ammunition

Asset ID: 14-ATF-024066

- 2. Upon entry of the criminal judgment, this order becomes final as to Little, and shall be made a part of his sentence and included in the criminal judgment.
- 3. The United States shall publis h notice of this Order and its intent to dispose of the property in such manner as the Attorney General may direct. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the said property.
- 4. Upon entry of this Order, the Bureau of Alc ohol Tobacco and Firearms or their designee is authorized to seize the above-described forfeited property as directed by the United States Attorney 's Office and to commen ce proceedings that comply with statutes governing third party rights.
- 5. Any person, other than the named Defendant, asserting a legal interest in the subject property may, within thirty days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier, petition the court for a hearing—without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his alleged interest in the subject property and for an amendment of the order of forfeiture, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(6) and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(c).
- 6. Any petition filed by a third party asserting an int erest in the above-described property shall be sign ed by the petitioner under penalt y of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner 's right, title, or interest in the subject property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner 's acquisition of the right, title or interest in such property, and ad ditional facts supporting the petitioner 's claim and the relief sought.
 - 7. After the dispos ition of any motion filed under Fed. R. Crim. P.

32.2(c)(1)(A) and before a hear ing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that suc h discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

- 8. The United States shall have clear title to the property following the court's determination of all t hird party interests, or, if no petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period pr ovided in 21 U. S.C. § 853(n)(2) for the filing of third party petitions.
- 9. The court shall retain jurisdiction to resolve disputes which may arise and to enforce and amend this Order as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).
